Interviewing

LANGUAGE SKILLS

1 FIRST 👥 Practice this roleplay between the examiner and two candidates. Follow the instructions.

For the examiner: ask the questions from section A and then choose another section from part B and ask two questions. Start with candidate A and then do the same with candidate B. Swap roles.

For the candidates: give full answers and provide details; do not simply say yes or no.

Section A

Good morning/afternoon/evening. My name is .... and I'm the examiner.
And your names are?
Can I have your mark sheets, please?
Where are you from? (Candidate A)
And you? (Candidate B)

Section B

Computers
· What do you use a computer for?
· How many hours a day do you spend in front of a computer?
· Would you like to work with computers in the future?
· What is your ideal job in computing?

Computer programs
· What computer programs do you often use?
· Do you know what a database is?
· Do you use special software like CAD or business software at school?
· What is your favourite program?

Special software
· Have you ever tried making music with your computer?
· Would you like to work in the cinema with special effects?
· Have you got a GPS system in your mobile?

E-learning
· Have you got an IWB in class?
· Do you like studying on line?
· What will the school of the future be like?

2 IELTS 👥 Practice this roleplay between the examiner and the candidate for about 4 minutes. Choose some questions, then swap roles.

Questions for the examiner:
· What's your name?
· Where do you come from?
· Why do you study computing?
· How do you imagine your future job?
· Which programs do you usually use? Word processors, spreadsheets, etc?
· What do you think of music composed with a computer?
· Do you remember any special effect in a movie that you liked?
· Would you like to live in an automated home?