

Internet privacy

LANGUAGE SKILLS

1 FIRST  You will hear five short extracts about Internet privacy. Choose from the list (A-H) what each person says. Use the letters only once. There are extra letters which you do not need to use.

- a. All our sensitive data are controlled.
- b. Both symmetric and public key algorithms are necessary to protect data.
- c. Data are not real things.
- d. He is drinking strawberry juice while at the computer.
- e. In Utah there is an iceberg in a warehouse.
- f. Nobody can decrypt his messages.
- g. Privacy is almost impossible in the digital world.
- h. Protected data mainly refers to emails on computer safety.

Speaker 1: Speaker 4:
 Speaker 2: Speaker 5:
 Speaker 3:

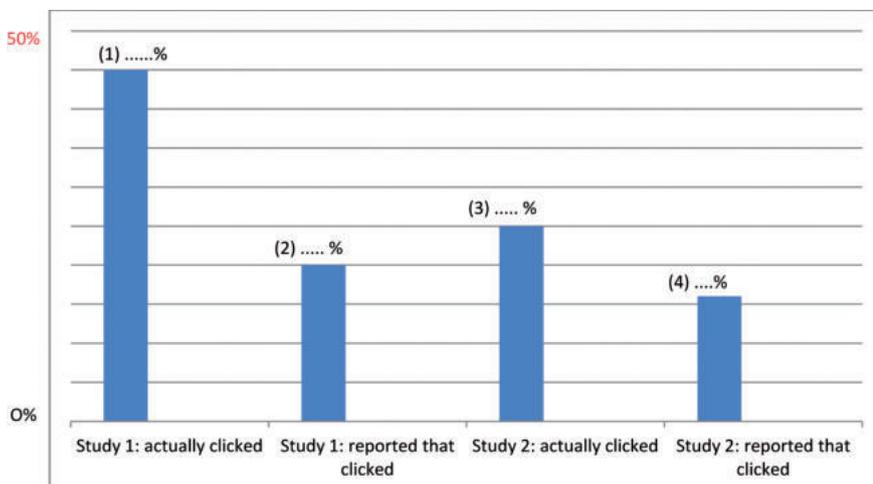

Listen again and match each speaker to these categories.

- a. the conspiracist
- b. the crypto nut
- c. the exhibitionist
- d. the philosopher
- e. the sage

Speaker 1: Speaker 4:
 Speaker 2: Speaker 5:
 Speaker 3:

2 IELTS  Listen and complete these graphs.

Phishing and over confident users

Adjusting Security Plans in 2017 to Cyber Attack Victims

